

First Presbyterian Church has been invited to worship with St. Andrew Presbyterian and other Presbyterian churches on Sunday, November 3, 2024.

We will have the opportunity to meet and hear the Rev. Tony Lawson, co-moderator of our General Assembly. He will be filling the pulpit and serving communion. Please plan to attend the worship service on November 3 at 11:00 a.m. (There will not be a worship service at MorganField on that day.)

Some information about Tony Lawson: Master of Divinity from Union Presbyterian Seminary In Richmond, Virginia; recipient of the Peabody Faculty Award; called and currently serving as pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church of Surfside, South Carolina; currently enrolled in Doctor of Ministry studies at Union Presbyterian Seminary, Charlotte, North Carolina.

In addition to the worship service, First Presbyterian will have a congregational meeting immediately following the service. St. Andrew is providing a room for us to hold the meeting. The call for the meeting is below.

Having been duly notified in accordance with the Book of Order, the congregation of First Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), is called to meet at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church on Sunday, November 3, 2024, following the 11:00 a.m. worship service.

The purpose of the meeting is as follows:

1. To elect three elders for the class of 2027;
2. To elect one elder for the class of 2026;
3. To elect three members of the congregation to serve on the 2025 Congregational Nominating Committee;
4. To elect one person to serve on the Board of First Churches United, Inc. for a three-year term;
5. To elect one person from First Presbyterian Church to serve as president of the Board of First Churches United, Inc. for 2025;
